Adams Elected Deputy Mayor Ensuing 3 Months

Council Considers Hockey Rink

The first regular meeting of the Wainwright Town Council for the month of October was held in the Council Chamber at 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening of last week.

The members present at this meeting were Mayor Forster and Councilors Adams, Welch, McLeod, Billing, Courrier and Patterson.

The recorded proceedings of the regular meeting of September 19th, were read and were confirmed as written.

A communication was read from the Department of Old Age Pensions relative to the application of Mrs. Carrie E. Andrews for pension, pointing out that, in view of the affidavits submitted to the department by Mrs. Andrews in substantiation of her residence in Wainwright, the department will require evidence from Council in contradiction, as otherwise the department must accept residence as established. A motion was submitted that Council continue its opposition on this application and, in the discussion which followed, it was pointed out that it did not devolve upon Council to act as detectives in seeking evidence on facts so clearly evident. An amendment to the motion was then submitted that, inasmuch as this Council is not in position to submit evidence disputing the facts as contained in the affidavits supporting Mrs. Andrews' application, approval of the application be granted under protest. On being put to the vote, the amendment was carried by a majority by no means unanimous.

Mr. E. H. L. Thomas wrote soliciting a share of the insurance controlled by the Town of Wainwright, pointing out that his commission on any business granted him would be applied to the reduction of his indebtedness to the town.

On motion, this communication was referred to the Committee on Assessment, Property and by-Laws. Mr. Riley Goodrich made a new application to purchase six lots on Clawson Avenue in the vicinity of Columbia Street at a price of $500 each and, on motion, his application was accepted.

Mr. Harold Spaven submitted a written offer of $20.00 for lot 26 in block 10 Plan 6445 V and $10.00 for Lot 27 in the same block, stating that he was willing to pay these amounts by hauling gravel on the basis of 1 1/2 yards for $1.00 as required from time to time by the town, and, on motion, the communication was laid on the table until next regular meeting for the obtaining of further information connected therewith.

In reply to an application from the office of the Municipal News for a year's subscription to that magazine, the Secretary-Treasurer was authorized, by motion, to forward $1.00 as the price of a subscription to the Municipal News for one year.

Mr. W. S. Campbell, President and Manager of the Wainwright Gas Company Limited, wrote that, in order to assure a plentiful supply of gas, it may be necessary for the company to drill a new well in the near future and, as the franchise period has but a short time to run, he desired to ascertain the status of such well, if it were found necessary to drill it.

On motion, the communication was ordered filed that Council may inform itself intelligently on the question.

A communication was presented from the Wainwright Hockey Club with two alternative proposals connected with the operation of a rink for the Town of Wainwright during the approaching winter season. One proposal is that Council establish the rink in accordance with certain specifications as submitted when the hockey club will operate the rink on a schedule submitted without further obligation by the town and the other that the Town of Wainwright establish the rink under the same specifications and operate the rink, the hockey club to pay a stated sum for the use of the rink for practices and games, taking all moneys received from all such games. On motion, the Mayor was authorized to appoint a committee to investigate the proposals and report and, in accordance with this motion, Councilors Welch and Courrier were named as a committee.

The Finance Committee submitted the following report recommending payment of accounts in a total of $6611.96 (and, on motion, the report was accepted and incorporated in the proceedings of the meeting and the Mayor and Secretary-Treasurer were authorized to issue cheques in payment of all accounts included in the report in a total of $6611.96.

STUDENT

I wish to say to the students of the school that if they will give us their support by handing in jokes, poems, stories or anything of interest we will publish a good, snappy, separate paper for the school.

about eight good-sized pages. We will have to charge ten cents a copy in order to pay for the printing of it. Lists have been passed around to the different grades and if we get a sufficient number of names of the students who promise to buy a copy we will get this paper out soon.

Come on students, sign up and hand in contributions to your room editor and let's have a real paper.

A jolly time was had on Friday, October 6th, in the Masonic hall when a high school dance was held. Dancing was from about 9 to 11 and then refreshments were served and then dancing was continued.

As for our school Orchestra, it's getting better all the time. We're sure everyone enjoyed the music and we wish to thank our orchestra for giving such a splendid performance.

This year finds one new member in our musical group — Earl Lane — our drummer — and he drum!! I'll say so —

Well anyway, we've got an Orchestra worthy of praise — and how!

Bill Brunker, the proprietor and manager of the Elite Theatre, has erected a new bill board between his theatre and Rudd & Patterson's store. This town is becoming more modern and up to date every day in every way. So far as his business is concerned, we predict that it will add quite materially to the business of the theatre and is a reflection of the determination on the part of the owner to go after business.

SYNOPSIS

Camilla Hoyt, young and beautiful, falls in love with Peter Anson, fellow student in an art school. She is the adopted daughter of a wealthy family, and he is a poor, struggling sculptor. On their first date Peter spends most of his money to show Camilla a good time, and then decides he must give her up because he can't stand the financial pace. A chance meeting, however, paves the way for another date. This time they walk in the park. Camilla tells Peter that she is not rich; or, at least, will not inherit the Hoyt fortune. Peter in turn confesses he is practically penniless. They fall into each other's arms. Together, in the park, Peter and Camilla try to arrive at some plan for the future. Mrs. Hoyt, Camilla's foster mother, suggests that Camilla's actions that a romance is brewing. She is anxious to see Camilla wed wealth. Mrs. Hoyt immediately begins to question the girl about the interest Peter is showing her—she manages to be present on one occasion when Peter calls for Camilla, but the latter's clever stage management thwarts her plan. At a school party, Avis Werth, another wealthy art student, who is attracted to Peter, claims a dance with him, and in the meantime Camilla disappears. Peter had last seen her with Gus Matson, his roommate, whom he has befriended.

Now Go On With The Story

CHAPTER XIII.

When Peter first had admitted to Gus that he was serious about Camilla Hoyt, the latter had ridiculed his friend with jeering scorn. "Sure, if you want to land in the gutter just go ahead and fall for all the avoirdupois that cherish your hankings. Be a gigolo! Let some honoree pay your tailor and your barber and your hotel bills and lead you around by a gold leash and collar. Go on, you're built just for that. Let us be men who are not so good to look at, do the work of the world and take the honors."

"That'll do for you," Peter warned, half angry. "Whether or not I love Camilla and whether or not she has money, will not affect my work in the least."

"Oh, no? Well, I've seen that work-out. And it's a wash-out, always. Forget the love-slush, kid, and be a man."

"When you find love, you are a man," Peter said soberly. "If you weren't one before, you have to be then."

"Say, what kinda trash confession magazines have you been reading?" I thought I was watching your habits better'n that!" he jeered.

To escape such tirades without an exhibition of anger, Peter had decided that if Gus knew Camilla, he would understand how serious he was about her. So he arranged for them to meet. The three had dined together one evening, in an obscure little restaurant on a side street where a bombastic sign in the window had promised, "All You Can Eat for 60c." Camilla had insisted upon going there when Peter suggested the dinner.

He had demurred.

"Where," she demanded, "would you and Gus have dinner, if you were alone? Tell me the truth."

He met her eyes with an amused gleam. "Well, the best kind of place to take Gus is one where they advertise a fat rate. He's a smaller man than I am but his capacity for food is on the down and down."

Caked Udder Cleared

W. N. U. 2015

"That is where we shall go then—to a fat-rate restaurant. You find one—or I shan't go anywhere with you."

That was that, and settled the matter. The walls of the restaurant which they selected were of green tile decorated with a black frieze. Instead of painted murals and tapestries. The music was of clattering nickel-silver on vitrolite tables and soprano voices of waitresses calling their orders to the cook.

"But what are you gonna do with her, kid? You can't afford a wife like that any more than you can own a Rolls-Royce or a yacht. The up-keep is about the same. Or do the car and the yacht go with her?"

"Not much. She goes with me."

"Yeah? 'Whither thou goest, I will go—'that kind of honey? Say, kid," he pushed his hands away with a gesture of disdain. "That's what they all say until they get you. Then when they slipped the collar and chain on, they make you, do the followin' and take all the fancy sops they do, besides. Good-bye career, for you."

Peter did not enlighten Gus concerning Camilla's situation. That was her secret, and her private affair, anyway. So he ignored Gus's ridicule and dire prophecies, and avoided further references to Camilla as much as possible. The two had met subsequently in the routine of classes, and Gus had been affable in his attentions to Camilla at tonight's reception.

The second time he danced with her, he remarked in a confidential tone, "You're pretty keen about Peter, I guess."

"Sure, swell guy. But I mean seriously, Miss Hoyt, you and Peter have things settled pretty well, I believe."

"Did Peter tell you?" surprised.

"No, but I have two eyes, two ears and a brain that works every other impulse or so," he grinned indulgently.

Camilla laughed. "Well?"

He sobered. "I didn't ask you that."

EATS DIRT

Camilla knew well where the benches were, and located one easily. "Where?" exclaimed Gus, "Society's not in my line. A little of that goes a long way with me. Of course," he amended in a lower voice, "it's different dancin' with a swell girl like you."

"Let's talk about Peter," she suggested quickly. "What do you think I should know about him, Mr. Matson?"

"So she doesn't want to hear about me, at all," he soliloquized. "I don't count. She wants to know about Peter. Aw right, aw right, baby, get a load of this. He announced abruptly in reply to her question, 'That he's a cheat and a double-crosser!'"

Camilla gasped, astonished to silence.

He scoffed at refinement and knew all there was to know, told the world, too, in no uncertain terms. She had tolerated him only for Peter's sake, who pitied him and believed that what he needed and deserved was a helping hand. Peter was so kind-hearted and glib, and this was the way he was being repaid for his charity.

Radio Burglar Alarm

Device Made By Japanese Firm Is Also Advertising Novelty

A novel burglar alarm which may also be used as an advertising device is claimed to have been developed by a Japanese firm, according to Asahi-Tokyo Trade Commissioner Donald W. Smith in Tokio.

The new device which is called the "Radio Alarm," operates from the electric capacity contained in the human body. The delicate apparatus of the machine immediately starts an alarm ringing, switches on the electric lighting system or automatically fires a gun when a person comes within the range of the device.

The "radio alarm" may also be used in connection with advertising displays in shop windows. A dark window may be suddenly illuminated when a pedestrian approaches. The merchandise within the shop window may be caused to move, and advertising signs made to flash on and off.

The new device is small and compact, the entire apparatus being contained in a case 10 1/2 x 7 1/2 x 1 1/2 inches. Its makers claim that it is durable and requires no extra attention after installation. The device does not operate from the electric current supply and it is claimed that it never fails to function.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michaelis

SUCH AS I HAVE

The poet quotes: "Silver and gold have I none; But such as I have I will give unto you. And he shows me the sunrise and setting sun. And the April sky with its rain-washed blue. He lifts up the veil from their listless eyes. To give them the glamour of sea and shore. He opens their ears to the four winds' sighs. And to the sirens' song through the breakers' roar."

"Of such as I have I will give," cries he. And he teaches the goodness which dwells unguessed. The spark-divine which few eyes can see. That is glowing deep in the human breast. Of patience and sacrifice he writes. Of the long endeavor, the starry goal, durable in the end his message lights. An answering gleam in each listening soul.

War On The Hitch-Hiker

The Royal Automobile Club of Canada, a Montreal organization, has declared war on hitch-hikers and is endeavoring to enlist the support of the provincial and municipal police forces in a campaign to stamp out this ever-growing highway nuisance which, this summer, threatened to menace the safety of motorists on the highways and city streets.

In one day recently $2,000,000 in gold was landed in England from India.

Little Helps For This Week

"Whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall not be ashamed."—Proverbs 28:25. "I will cry unto God most high, that he that doeth all things for me."—Psalm 57:2.

May all our restless hearts keep still, And wait in cheerful hope; content. To take what ever His gracious will, His all-discreting love hath sent. Nor doubt our inmost wants are known.

To Him who chose us for His own. G. Neumark.

God has brought us into this time.

If we are not fit to cope with that which he has prepared for us, we should have been utterly unfit for any condition we imagine for ourselves. In this time we are to live and wrestle, and no other. Let us humbly look at it, and we shall not wish that the sun could go back its ten degrees, or that we could go back with it. If many times have departed it is that the difficult time may make us more in earnest; that they may teach us not to depend on ourselves. If easy belief is impossible, it is that we may learn what belief is, and in whom it is to be placed.—F. D. Maurice.

Girl Repairs Famous Clock

Accomplished Task Which Baffled New York's Male Clockmakers

A twenty-year-old girl accomplished a task which had baffled New York's best male clockmakers. The Hotel Martingue's famous 300-year-old clock again is ticking after being silent for a week.

The girl, Miss Louise Weyer, of Astoria, L.I., read of the $30,000 clock's stopping for the first time since it was placed in the hotel's lobby in 1911, and of the absence from the city of the clocksmith who regularly tends it.

She volunteered her services, done a smooch and soon had the clock operating again.

The value of your local newspaper to the success of your business cannot be overestimated. It's worth all the support and co-operation you can give it. For the newspaper is a mirror reflecting the life of the community in which you and your store have an important part.

Your advertisement is the reflection of your store in this mirror. Everybody sees it there. If it is not there the mirror is dark where your store should be. You are there but you cannot be seen. Your store is open for business as usual, but "Out of sight; out of mind!"

To keep in step with the progress of your community; to get your share of business, you must advertise regularly. Take your newspaper publisher into your confidence; he can give you invaluable assistance. Establish an advertising budget. Plan a regular schedule for your advertisements. "Oh, My Back!"

THE WESTERN farmer is a tough bird. From raw prairie-bush land he has created thousands of choice homes. To do so he had to battle frost and snow in winter and heat and mosquitoes in summer, but through it all, good times and poor times his indomitable spirit is never quenched—until the last week in September. Then, and then only does he really meet his Waterloo.

The spring in Western Canada is full of promise. With the long winter left behind May arrives with the first real warm sunshine. Seeding is the main task in hand, but a little chore insignificant at the time is done—the potatoes are planted. Whether plowed in or planted in or planted in the ordinary way, the job is wedged in between the larger task of general seeding. It assumes some importance too with a number of people. Some people plant them whole; other farmers like W.C. McGregor while another likes some other variety. Probable yields are discussed, whether they will be really or soapy—and then in the rush of other spring work they are forgotten. During the summer the plow's run up and down the rows, and then before one realizes it the last week in September is here, the potato vines are dead, occasional night frosts makes it imperative that they be taken out.

Apples and cherries may be picked from trees, grapes may be picked from the vine but potatoes whether they are plowed out or plain garden variety dug out, must be picked up from the ground. It appears easy and one starts with enthusiasm. About 15 minutes of digging, you straighten up and look around at the landscape as if you had not seen it before; you also are curious as to how many rows you planted and how long they are. They appear longer now than when you planted them or even when you commenced digging. You go at it again and after awhile somebody calls dinner and you thank heaven for good cooks. It seemed so easy to sit down to dinner but what a job to get up. Anyway you realize no potatoes, no Christmas dinner so you go at it again until gradually the undug portions become smaller and smaller until with a sigh of relief you realize they are all dug. Then with many a grunt and a groan you straighten up, stick your chest out like a stage hero and remark, "Oh, My Back!"—The Tolded Mercury.

Alberta Liberals Express Views Before Commission

The following are a few excerpts taken from the Brief submitted by Mr. W. R. Howson, leader of the Liberal Party in Alberta, to the Commission on Banking which held sittings throughout Canada recently:

This Brief is not filed as an official statement in a political sense of the Liberal Party in Alberta in relation to the question under consideration, but rather as representing some common grounds held by that large body of Alberta citizens namely all those of Liberal views and ideas who voice might not otherwise be heard before this Commission were not for the presentation of this brief.

The applicants are privileged to say that they speak on the subjects under consideration for tens of thousands of citizens of Alberta broadly of every class and occupation, followers of agriculture, mining, fishing, lumbering, commerce, industry and the professions, who have in past years approved and supported the policies and attitude of the Liberal Members of the Legislative Assembly of Alberta in relation to public affairs and who continue to do so at the present time. Furthermore we think it desirable to record for the information of the Commission that on October 21st, 1932, there assembled in Edmonton in General Convention, four hundred and forty-four accredited delegates appointed by and chosen from among these citizens of Alberta for the discussion of various public matters, policies and resolutions amongst others the resolution dealing with the Canadian banking system and monetary policy, and proposing the establishment of a Central National Bank of Canada.

General Principles

In the first place the applicants subscribe to the following two propositions enunciated by His Lordship the Chairman of the Commission:

(1) "Banks cannot create wealth of themselves, but they can help industry to do so."

and to these we desire to add as in our opinion a fundamental proposition that it is the people of this Province themselves who create new wealth in the Province by the exercise of their labor, skill, industry and ability, by placing existing capital to legitimate uses and by the wise safeguarding and development of Alberta's natural resources. On the other hand we believe it to be generally admitted that there is a clear distinction between the creation of new wealth and the creation of new currency and credit.

The creation, issue, regulation and control of money credit and rates of interest are in our submission functions of and properly exercisable by governmentally controlled institutions, and we feel that these functions have in very large measure been delegated or handed over to joint stock banking corporations and that they must now be required in equally large measure to surrender them back.—Wetaskiwin Times.

C. C. F. ACCLAIMED IN EAST AND WEST

During the month of August some of the most successful meetings in the history of the movement—or of its component parts—have been held in the interests of the C. C. F.

At Vancouver, on August 14th, the president, J. S. Woodsworth, M.P., spoke to more than 7,000 people. The keynote of his address, according to the Vancouver Sun, which printed a verbatim report of it, occupying about one full page, "was the proposition that Canada resembles a great company town in which individuals prosper in proportion to their subservience to thirty or forty bosses in St. James Street, Montreal."

A few days later the Sun published a two-column interview with Mr. Woodsworth, with the following illuminating introduction:

"In 1923 Bob Bouchette interviewed J. S. Woodsworth, M.P., in Montreal. His story was never printed by the eastern paper because its policy was 'no publicity for the Bolshevik crank.' The times have changed and liberal thought has progressed. So has Mr. Woodsworth. After the lapse of ten years, at another extreme of the continent, Bob finally has the satisfaction of getting a Woodsworth interview past the editor.—Editor."

Audience of 30,000 In the East Elmore Philpott and Agnes Macphail, M.P., spoke to an audience which was probably the largest ever addressed by C.C.F. speakers—an audience which is stated by the Toronto Star to have numbered 30,000. The occasion was a C.C.F. picnic at Lamton Park, near Toronto, and the speeches were carried by several auditors to the audience who sat on the ground which sloped upwards from the platform in a natural amphitheatre. Mr. Philpott described the C.C.F. Manifesto as "the finest and most statesmanlike document ever drawn up in the history of Canada."

"Our enemies were very disappointed," he said. "They thought we were going to have a free-for-all fight at Regina. We did have fights, but they were out in the open, between friends and comrades."

C.C.F. meeting in Winton, Ontario, was reported in the Winton Echo, which opens with this paragraph:

"Long before eight o'clock on Friday night the town hall, Winton, was filled to capacity; chairs were brought in, but it was quite evident that the hall would not be able to hold the people who were anxious to hear Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P., and Captain Philpott. The church of the latter day Saints had been offered to accommodate a second meeting and this offer was accepted and it was also filled to capacity."

The Strength of Conservatism The Toronto Star reports a meeting addressed by Captain Philpott in Burlington, Ontario, where he spoke to an audience of 1,000 and was "accorded an enthusiastic reception in a town which has been a stronghold of Conservatism for sixty years." Miss Macphail and Captain Philpott spoke at a United Church Garden party at Waterford, Ontario, where he was introduced by Professor Alexander MacLaren. The Star also reports quite fully an address of Captain Philpott to a "capacity audience" in a Toronto theatre, under the auspices of one of the C.C.F. clubs; an organization meeting of another C.C.F. club, also addressed by Captain Philpott; and a speech of Miss Macphail at a U.F.O. picnic at Durham, Ontario.

Irvine and Garland Busy Since the Regina convention, William Irvine M.P., has spoken at a series of meetings in Mackenzie constituency, in Saskatchewan where ex-judge Stubbs is C.C.F. candidate in the forthcoming Federal by-election.

Mr. Irvine has also spoken at splendid meetings in southern British Columbia, at Cranbrook, Nelson, Rossland, Trail, Chilliwack, and other centres, as well as several meetings in Vancouver to capacity houses with many interested people turned away; early in September he will give another series of addresses on behalf of C.C.F. Provincial candidates at Prince Rupert and various points along the Pacific Coast. At the same time E. J. Garland, M.P., speaking at a number of meetings in the Okanagan Valley and on Vancouver Island. According to latest reports available, some 25 C.C.F. auditors are running in the B.C. provincial elections, though it is possible that this number will be somewhat increased.

Pin-Head Pete

I asked Pete one time he was here if he knew Bill Pigeon. He said he did and that that reminded him of one time quite a while ago. He heard that Bill was an expert shot. In fact he was so good that he never missed. He said he heard some one had slipped up on him some kind of a patent on a gun. One day he went to borrow Bill's gun but he said he had loaned it out and the fellow had not brought it home yet. A little later he went again and this time Bill let him have it. It looked like any other gun so far as he could see. Well, he started out early one morning, by himself, as Pete confessed he was not a very good shot. He said he was carrying the gun under his arm and all at once the gun moved forward and it looked like some one had slipped up on him. He was on looking around he did not see anyone. He walked on, he said, and pretty soon the gun did the same thing and he looked quick but no one was in sight. But this time he was getting a little suspicious that something unusual was happening. About that time the gun began to pull and Pete said he hung on just to see what would happen and the gun pulled harder and harder until he was on a run and it seemed that the faster he went the harder the gun pulled until finally his wooden leg tripped and down he went but still held on to the gun. Well, sir, you wouldn't believe it, but that gun actually dragged me along on the ground. I hung on for dear life because I did not want to lose the gun. Pretty soon I saw an oil derrick ahead and we were going straight for it and I know that when we got to it the gun actually dragged me right up over the top of that derrick and when we got to the top I sure thought my time had come. I said, 'believe it or not, we began to sail through the air, going down gradually, until I saw a straw stack ahead and bless your life, if we didn't land on top of that straw stack. Now the big surprise of my life awaited me, for what do you suppose happened. Right there, just in good shooting distance, was a large flock of wild geese. The first thing I knew was that the gun pointed right toward the flock of geese and began to go off and when it quit I waited for my very eyes, was every goose in that flock as dead as could be and there were, let me see, Oh, yes, I remember, there were 399. There should have been 400 but I Mother Goose stayed at home. I said to Pete, well how do you account for such a strange action on the part of the gun. He said he found out that Bill had actually discovered a kind of special material to put in a gun, that was specially attracted to geese and that it acted like a magnet, when it entered a certain field or a distance of geese, that it pulled strong in that direction. He said he figured that Bill had made a great discovery and that some day no nation on earth would dare to molest Wainwright as long as Bill and his artillery stayed here and that Bill said that was the newest discovery in modern warfare.

McCAFFERTY ITEMS

Threshing is all finished in this district. Don't forget the Turkey Supper October 18th.

Many farmers are working their land this fall, taking advantage of the fine mellow soil.

McCaferly J.P.A. & Juniors held their monthly meeting on Saturday night.

McCaferly School enrolled a new pupil in the person of the principal's brother, Ted Sparks, making seven pupils in Grade XI.

We were pleased to see Mrs. Mel Johnston, of Wainwright, visiting her old friends once again.

THIS IS CAPITALISM

Is it not odd that although there are hundreds of thousands of people in civilized lands who are going about hungry and cold and shabby because they have not the money with which to buy food and clothes, farmers (in some parts of the world) should be burning wheat and sowing less than half the cotton they used to sow in the Cotton Belt?

Is it not strange that in Europe hundreds of thousands of poor people have to drink sham coffee made out of straw and chaff flavoring because they cannot afford to buy fresh coffee—while in Brazil has given orders that no new coffee trees must be planted for the next three years?

Is it not queer that in Germany hundreds of thousands of men and women are "lightening their belt" because they have not got enough money to buy the beef that used to come in from Denmark—while the other day in Denmark 250,000 cows and bulls were killed and their carcasses burned because the farmers of Denmark can no longer sell at a profit to Germany?

In Holland a short while ago 100,000 baby pigs were killed and burned. In Portugal, they have poured the wine away into the gutters. In Spain, in many orchards, fruit has been allowed to fall and rot under trees. Rubber has oozed from the trees in Malaya, in the Dutch East Indies, and in South America, but the workman have not been allowed to gather it. In the U.S.A., soldiers have driven workers and merchants from the oil fields so that they shall not draw up the oil from under the earth. Miles of sugar canes from the West Indies have wasted their sweetness on the plantations where no man has been allowed to pick them. Thousands of jute plants in India have been left standing. Tons of dead fish have been thrown back into the seas by the fishermen who caught them.—(From The Modern World, a junior survey by H. C. Knapp-Fisher.)

A Remedy for

Spiritual Depression

The Rev. W. Franklin Harkey, United Presbyterian, Houston, Pa."Son, go work today in my vineyard." Matt. 21:28.

The parables of Jesus are shot through and through with practical truths. In this brief parable is suggested a remedy for spiritual depression. The excellent meaning of the story is easily discernible. The man who had two sons is God. The two sons refer to the high privileged Pharisees on the one hand, and the outcasts on the other—
"Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you." The Pharisee at the command of his father said, "I will not go, but later went, he who was looked upon as impossible said, "No," but later went he "the vineyard" stands for the field of service, or as Jesus said, "the world" is the field. The truth underlying the parable is that oftentimes those who are the most unlikely come into the kingdom before the self-righteous and self-respecting. The truth was apparent in the election of Christ by the Pharisees and the ready acceptance of him by the publicans of the day. Often today the hardest people to reach for Christ and his kingdom are those who are the respectable, law-abiding people—those who feel no need of repentance.

But, we shall consider that Jesus is seeking to send workers into his vineyard. Undoubtedly we can reject of this parable is that Jesus the vineyard who is saying, "son, go work today in my vineyard." It is he command Jesus gives to those who are in his church now. Here are suggested truths for the church and his workers today. We find ourselves in a kind of slough of despond at the present time. Spiritual depression is apparent in wide areas of the church, and a resultant attitude has been one of the idleness on the part of a vast number of the followers of Christ. Leaders of the church are puzzled as to how to some panacea to cure the ills of the body of Christ. The Lord of the vineyard is saying, "Son, go work today in my vineyard." There are truths in this parable applicable to our present needs.

There is work to be done. Jesus suggests as much, "Go work." "My vineyard." On another occasion he said to his disciples,
"The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few." He was ever talking of the kingdom, of the needs of men in the field, the vineyard, and of how imperative it was that workers be sent forth. Men are called into the kingdom that they may be of service. We often remark on the simple commands of Jesus "Come," and "Go." He calls us into his kingdom that he may send us out to do his service in the world. Here we need not look far to discover the fields that are white unto the harvest.

A part of the vineyard is the home land. America needs the Gospel of Jesus Christ. There remains much land to be won. Here it is no small task as we think of the need of spreading the Gospel in our crowded cities with their masses outside of the church. Our rural regions, our mountaineers, our negroes, our new comers, and the Indians whom we owe an obligation to all those present the urgency of our task, and surely our opportunities among these classes must not be forgotten. The church must renew its mission here in America.
If we are to save our country from present paganism, we must send workers, the call of the present.
The church has faced many crises and still lives to carry on the work of the Lord of the vineyard. But, we have too often been satisfied with present attainments. Christians have failed to propagate their faith.
Religion has become a tradition in large areas of life that its vital-ness has been lost.

Moreover, the kingdom of our Lord has no frontiers. The vineyard extends beyond national boundaries. The church must not overlook the fact that the Master said, "the field is the world." For eign missionary work in practically every denomination faces a crisis.
While retreatments have been necessary due to the shrinkage of missionary offerings, it will be a fatal mistake now to lessen our enthusiasm for the salvation of the world and women everywhere. We cannot afford to pull down our banners and retire from the fields of missionary endeavor. Shall we eat our morsel alone?

"If I have eaten my morsel
alone?"
The patriarch spoke in scorn:
What would he think of the Church, were he shown Handsome, good, fornicator, Godless, Christian, with soul untamed,
While the Church's all eat is fullness of bread,
Eating her morsel alone?"
The immediacy of the Command
"Son, go work today." The command of the Lord of the vineyard is,
"Today," Jesus said concerning his own work, "I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh when no man can work." Salvation is offered today. "For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and the day of salvation have I succeeded thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation."

The need makes it imperative that we work today. The world's redeem of the Gospel makes this command of the Lord of the most striking. Men and women are in bondage to sin, away from light, without hope and without God. Take the world at any point now and you will be convinced that it is desperate need of the truth of Jesus. On the whole we are very ready to respond when there is a cry for help from people who have appealed to us who are in need in our own country.
Spiritual needs should have their approach. Christ is the only one who can satisfy the needs of the soul. On one occasion E. Stanley Jones asked an earnest Hindu what he thought of Christ. Said he,
"There is no one else who is seriously bidding for the heart of the world except Jesus Christ. There is no one else on the earth."

And for our own encouragement
the truth is dynamic that we face the needs of man not alone in the strength, nor in our wisdom, but the presence of Christ is with us.
Said he to his disciples, "Lo, I am with you always." Gloried that assurance the early Christians went everywhere, preaching the Gospel. A like comfort is ours as we face indifference and the antagonisms of the world.

What would happen if every member of the church should hear this call to enlist for work in Christ's kingdom? Periods of depression have come upon the church as well as upon the country. Idleness brings such conditions. An Old Testament character is very much in point as in illustration. Elijah had been very zealous for God, but at the threat of wicked Jezebel he fled. Finding refuge under a juniper tree, he requested that his might die. Spiritual depression had settled down upon him. He lost contact with God. But, right after that experience God gave him a task. That task was the commission to anoint his successor, Elisha, to his successor. With the commission came renewed vision and experience with God. Thus work has ever been the establisher of the soul.

To remedy for modern spiritual depression is renewed activity in the kingdom of the vineyard.
The trouble with many church people is lack of interest in the primary work of the church, namely, the winning of souls to Christ. Nowhere more clearly than in the church is the truth of the old proverb seen, "An idle brain is the devil's workshop." Spiritual depression comes when our brain and hands are idle.

What would send a note of encouragement throughout the whole church of Christ today would be for Christians to re-enter the service of the Lord. Too many are basking in the sunlight of the world's work, love without contributing to the onward progress of faith. The church

THE FAMOUS
RIDDLE

Come and commiserate one who was blind,
Helpless and desolate, void of a mind.

Guileless, deceiving; though un-
believing,
Free from all sin;
By mortals 'adored, still I ignored
The world I was in.

King Ptolemy's Caesar's, and Tig-lath's Pileas's Birthdays are also—Wife, mine's, astrologer's, mine is unknown.

I ne'er had a father nor mother,— or rather
If I had either, then they were neither Alive at my birth.

Lodged in a palace, hunted by malice,
I did not inherit a spot on the earth.

Nursed among pagans, no one baptized me;
A sponsor I had who ne'er cate-chized me.

She gave me the name to her heart was the dearest;
She gave me the place to her bosom was nearest.

But one look of kindness she cast
on me never;
Not a word in my blindness I heard from her ever.

Compassed by dangers, nothing could harm me—
Among foeman and strangers naught could alarm me.

I naved, I destroyed,
I neared, I annoyed,
Kept a crown for a prince
But had none of my own
Filled the place of a king
But ne'er sat on a throne.

Rescued a warrior, baffled a plot,
Was what I seemed not, seemed what I was not.

Devoted to slaughter, a price on
my head,
A king's lovely daughter watched by my bed.

Though gently she dressed me
fainting with fear
She never carried me nor wiped off a tear.

Never moistened my lips, though parching and dry;
What marvel a blight should pursue till she die!

'Twas royalty nursed me, wretched and poor,—
'Twas royalty nursed me, in secret
I'm sure.

I lived not, I died not, but tell you I must,
That ages have passed since I first turned to dust.

itself is down in the dumps. Talk of high times is heard on all sides.
Work! Work! would bring back normal prosperity to millions of people in American life today. We pray for the return of conditions where every man may find work for his hands to do. Work! Work! would bring back a great spiritual impetus to the Christ has no hands, but our hands to do His work today.

He has no feet but our feet to lead
men in His way.
He has no tongue but our tongues
to tell men how He died.

Christ has no help but our help,
to bring men to His side.

Christ has no faith but our faith in Christ, a faith that will lead the people of God to concern themselves more with kingdom work will mean a quickening of the life of the whole church.

Underlying all of our kingdom work will be the spirit of intercession. True prayer is work. The Master is saying, "Go . . . pray."
More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of. We will not go far without prayer, but with intercession will go consecrated personalities. Our Lord himself prayed at night that he might have strength for the work of the next day. The church needs prayer. It also needs an increasing number of workers upon whom the Master of the vineyard can depend. The resources of the Lord are ever with us, and in the vineyard the presence of the "Certain Man" is assured.

MAKES STRONG PLEA FOR TOTAL DISARMAMENT

Heating, England.—The Labor Party pledged its strong resistance to any war, passed a resolution favoring the total disarmament of all nations and heard Arthur Henderson declare the participation of the United States and Russia is necessary in peace conversations sponsored by the League of Nations.

"The road to Washington and Moscow lies through Geneva," said Mr. Henderson, chairman of the world disarmament conference, in explaining that the league is the only instrument for peace organization. He won cheers when he said, "we must abolish the national equipment and institutions that make war possible, and the private interests that lived by war."

The party's attitude toward war was supplemented by the equally strong views in the disarmament resolution. The motion was pointed out not only total disarmament of all nations but also the creation of an international police force.

Lower Empire Duties

Australia Takes Steps To Encourage Trade Within Empire

Canberra, Australia.—Prime Minister Joseph A. Lyons, of Australia, announced in his budget speech impending tariff changes which will give goods from Canada and the United Kingdom added preference in the Australian market. The added preference, he said, will be met by through reductions in preferential tariff rates and in principle duties charged on empire products.

Details of proposed reductions in British preferential tariff rates were not revealed, but it was pointed out that these and the principle reductions would enable empire goods to enter Australia at lower rates.

In addition to containing announcement of reductions in income taxes, the budget showed an excess of receipts over expenditures of $3,547,000 for the year ending June 30, 1933. Total revenue for the period amounted to $73,513,000 while expenditures totalled $69,966,000.

Farmers Protest

Charge Discrimination In Removal Of Pegged Minimum

North Battleford, Sask.—Charging discrimination against the farmers of northwest Saskatchewan in respect to the removal of the pegged minimum price, wheat pool delegates in session in North Battleford despatched the following telegram to Premier R. B. Bennett: "Wheat pool delegates in session at North Battleford representing northwest Saskatchewan, emphatically request that strong action be taken to stop falling minimum wheat market."

"Removed pegged minimum price discrimination against northern farmer. Lower prices destroying confidence in the London agreement."

"Believe national marketing board is the only solution. Volume, daily exports, should not be a factor, as 200 million bushels guaranteed for next year."

May Arbitrate

Wage Dispute Between Winnipeg Street Railway And Employees Still Goes On

Winnipeg, Man.—Unable to find a basis on which to settle the wage dispute existing between the Winnipeg Electric Company and its traffic employees the conference which has been going on between the company's officials and the negotiations committee of the street railway employees' unit of the One Big Union stood adjourned. No suggestion was made as it is expected now an arbitration board of five members will be appointed as approved by employees in their strike ballot to further investigate the dispute.

Think Port's Future Assured Churchill, Man.—With the restoration of normal crops the future of Churchill is assured, grain men of the northern Manitoba port believed. Despite a temporary setback received when lower lake freight rates were put into effect, sailings equal to last season's record number, carried a greater quantity of grain to overseas ports.

American Aeroplanes American aeroplanes were recently sold to Switzerland's leading air transport company.

Lake Carriers Want Coastal Laws Amended

Claim Higher Rates And More Wheat Shipments Needed

Ottawa, Ont.—The lake carriers are making a vigorous effort to persuade the Federal Government to amend the amendment to the coastal laws enacted at the last session of parliament.

It is being urged that unless higher rates can be obtained on the Great Lakes and a larger volume of wheat made available for Canadian owned ships there will not be a solvent company left in the business this fall.

Under the amendment the transshipment of wheat at Buffalo would be stopped, unless carried through-out in Canadian bottoms.

The lake carriers have met a favorable reception at Ottawa. They desire the amendment to be proclaimed now in order that they will reap the maximum advantage on the autumn wheat trade. Apparently most of the cabinet ministers are favorably disposed, but the final decision, it is learned rests with Premier R. B. Bennett. He is said to have requested a memorandum giving both sides of the case but has not yet indicated what will be done.

Paris Papers Criticize French Foreign Minister

Making Too Many Concessions To Germans Is Complaint

Geneva, Switzerland.—Criticism appearing in Paris newspapers to the effect that Joseph Paul-Boncour, the French foreign minister, was making too many concessions to the Germans, especially regarding the size of the French army, was said to have decided him to go to Paris and consult with the cabinet.

Revelation that a French statesman had conferred with the secretary of Germany's ministry of propaganda, Paul Joseph Goebbels, was said to have excited some of the French leaders.

M. Paul-Boncour told the assembly of the League of Nations that the four-power European peace pact of Great Britain, France, Italy and Germany strengthens the Locarno pact.

Fascist Party Being Developed In England

Young People Studying Movement States Hon. Herbert Greenfield

Calgary, Alberta.—Within three or four years at the present rate of development, England would have a Fascist party that would be a power to be reckoned with, Hon. Herbert Greenfield told the young men's section of the board of trade. Mr. Greenfield was formerly agent-general for Alberta in London, England.

Unemployment and economic pressure is driving England's youth into the ranks of the Communist and the Fascist, Mr. Greenfield declared. The younger generation is giving profound study to conditions and problems and new movements are springing up.

U.S. Veterans Parade

Col. Lafeche Witnesses Imposing Spectacle In Chicago

Chicago.—Like a moving human spectrum, dazzling in color, awe-inspiring in magnitude, the American Legion marched 160,000 strong down broad Michigan boulevard. Then the grand parade of American "Buddies" who did their part in the Great War, along with their women's auxiliaries swung into the Soldier Field amphitheatre to be reviewed by an assemblage of distinguished persons, Col. L. Lafeche, Canada's deputy minister of defence, among them.

The march past, which lasted for 10 unbroken hours, was the lone legion activity on the 15th annual convention program.

Dismissed By Nazis

Grandson Of Mendelssohn Loses Position In German University

Hamburg, Germany.—Professor Albrecht Mendelssohn Bartholdy, grandson of the composer Mendelssohn has been dismissed from the University of Hamburg and the Institute of Foreign Affairs, of which he was head.

Famous in international law, Bartholdy was dismissed because of his Jewish nationality. He was a pioneer in agitating against the claim of Germany's sole war guilt. His grandfather's music is no longer played nationally.

Gerhar Essar, a noted Jewish professor of civil law decorated in the war, also was dismissed.

Will Balance Budget

Conditions In Britain Show Good Improvement

London, Eng.—Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, told a group of bankers Britain's budget would be balanced this year and that undoubtedly the situation in the United Kingdom offered a more favorable prospect than it did a year ago.

"There is no sign of an approaching doom," said Mr. Chamberlain, "but on the other hand in almost every direction we see indications of definite progress and a growing sense of the confidence that this is no mere flash in the pan, but the beginning of a permanent advance."

The Chancellor said it seemed likely Great Britain ultimately would return to the gold standard.

"But," he continued, "we in this country cannot content to link our currency to gold until we are certain that the conditions prevailing are such as will permit the gold standard to function effectively."

Movies In Churches

Bishop Of London Has Approved Showing Religious Pictures

London, Eng.—With the approval of the bishop of London "movie" films are to be shown in churches and mission halls throughout his diocese.

The films will include scenes from the life of Christ, the last days of Livingstone, the martyrdom of Becket and incidents of missionary life. A travelling preacher will go round with the movies, and in due time it is hoped to elaborate this scheme by the introduction of a series of "talkies."

CANADA NOW ON THE ROAD TO RECOVERY

Ottawa, Ont.—Reasons for the opinion Canada is now on the road to recovery are set forth in a statement which Prime Minister R. B. Bennett will launch the campaign in connection with the refunding loan which will be offered to the public this week.

"With due precaution against unwarranted optimism I think I may say that in Canada we are now on the road to recovery," the Prime Minister declares.

"The events of the past six months appear to demonstrate with increasing clarity that the downward trend has come to a definite stop and that an upward trend is now in progress."

Mr. Bennett turns to the latest statistical reports on industry and trade. These records, he believes, show that Canada's general economic condition reached its lowest point during the month of February last, and that "to-day we are definitely above that level following a recovery which has been gradual but persistent and unmistakable."

Available records of industry since April show that 116,000 have been added to the payrolls while estimates based on these partial reports place the entire increase in employed persons since that date at 246,000.

External trade figures are also offered as proof of the upswing. Both exports and imports have increased and Canada's surplus of exports over imports during the 12 months ended with August of this year totalled $114,000,000.

"All these facts and figures I think may be quite safely taken as signposts on the road to recovery," the Prime Minister declares.

U.S. Unions Backing Canadian Rail Workers

Full Support Pledged In Dispute Over Wage Cut

Cleveland, Ohio.—A. F. Whitney, chairman of the Railway Labor Executive's Association, said the organization's full support had been pledged to Canadian railroad workers in their campaign against a second 10 per cent wage reduction.

Representatives of the Canadian railroaders conferred with rail-labor officials in his office on June 1, Mr. Whitney said, and at that time a resolution was adopted providing all legal expenses of the Canadian anti-wage reduction campaign would be paid by the railway labor unions and any other needed support would be given.

The resolution, Mr. Whitney said, provided the association should "go as far as possible" in aiding the workers of the Dominion, many of whom, he said, were receiving wages approximately 17 1/2 per cent lower than rail workers in the same capacities in the United States.

The rail unions have approximately 14,000 members in Canada, Mr. Whitney said.

A Strange Phenomenon

Lake Superior Village Inundated By Action Of Waves

Rosport, Ont.—A wall of water, believed to have been thrown up by earth tremors, under Lake Superior flooded storehouses and carried away fishing docks at this fishing hamlet. Bay waters receded more than 100 feet, leaving boats moored to the docks suspended in the air. On the backwash, buildings along the bay shoreline were flooded and considerable damage done. The unusual phenomenon occurred several times.

Peculiar action of the water left the lake bottom, fully exposed and docks and boats high and dry. Each succeeding wave rushed back with great force, breaking inland for some considerable distance. No lives were lost. Rosport is situated 100 miles north of Port Arthur.

Fewer On Relief In B.C.

Victoria, B.C.—Number of persons on relief in British Columbia decreased by 43,347 from the end of March to the end of August, dropping from 132,838 to 89,491. The decrease in August figures from those of July was 9,491, from 98,675 to 89,184.

Obligation Rests With Four Western Provinces

Dominion Government Has No Control Over Refunding Timber Dues

Ottawa, Ont.—The obligation to refund timber dues rests with the four western provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia, and not with the Dominion, under the terms of a judgment handed down by the supreme court of Canada.

In its judgment the court dealt with a reference made to it by the Dominion Government. The reference developed from a dispute between the Dominion and the western provinces concerning dues paid by homesteaders for the privilege of cutting timber on their lands for commercial purposes.

British Steel Plants Busy

News From Sheffield Regarding Business Is Cheering

London, Eng.—Cheering business news came from the United Kingdom's heavy industries, particularly from Sheffield, centre of the steel trade.

C. J. Walsh, just installed in the historic office of master cutler of Sheffield, reported plants in that city are producing more steel than in previous days and that the monthly output is 27,000 tons more than a year ago. A considerable share of this improvement, Walsh said, was a direct result of the tariff on imported steel. He added Sheffield's newer products such as magnets, razor blades and stainless steel had made great strides during the last year.

Supervised Farming

President Beatty Of C.P.R. Favors This Idea

Winnipeg, Man.—Supervision of farming in western Canada is essential to the improvement of farm practices generally and is a necessary incident to any federal immigration scheme in the opinion of E. W. Beatty, K.C., president of the Canadian Pacific Railway. "Farm management, for many years to come, will, I think, be an important factor in the success of farming operations in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta," Mr. Beatty said.

DOLLFUSS HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM ASSASSIN

Vienna.—The step-grandson of an emperor's dentist, wielding a dainty pearl-handled revolver, came within an ace of killing Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss and plunging Austrian and European politics into new and more dangerous confusion.

As it was, however, the two bullets from the gun of Rudolf Dertl, a former corporal in the Austrian army, only grazed the chancellor's left breast, wounding him slightly in the left arm. Dollfuss, after receiving treatment at a hospital, went home within an hour.

Socialist newspapers headlined the accusation that Dertl was a Hitlerite, while, on the other hand, the pro-Dollfuss newspaper Westblatt identified him as a member of the Schutzbund, the dissolved Socialist military organization.

Whatever Dertl's political camp, however, his two bullets were water on a duck's back as far as the diminutive Dollfuss was concerned.

A few hours after the attempt, the little chancellor—four feet, 11 inches tall—was standing in his pyjamas at home, delivering a nation-wide address assuring the Austrians he was still up and fighting.

Dollfuss thanked God for the fortunate outcome of the attempt on his life, coupling this with an expression of firm determination to proceed with his patriotic mission. He explained that he took the occasion to make the speech so as to shut off any exaggerated reports of his injury which might circulate.

"That was a close one," was the comment of the chancellor as he left the hospital to return to his home.

The attack was staged at the entrance to the parliament building. As Dollfuss approached, Dertl moved up, apparently with the intention of handing him a manuscript. Police intervened, however, and seized the document. Thereupon, the former corporal stepped back a few paces, drew his gun and fired.

The chancellor was rushed to the hospital. The officers began rounding up political suspects, leading to the belief in some quarters that drastic action against both the Nazis and the Socialists was impending.

DEATH TOLL IS HEAVY IN FIRE AT LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, California.—Twenty-six bodies were recovered from the ruins of a disastrous forest fire in Griffith Park, the city's main playground, a 27th victim died in a hospital, and fire officials expressed belief no others had perished, saying "nearly every foot" of the burned area had been searched.

Those who perished were unemployment relief workers on park roads, called to fight a small blaze starting near the golf course.

Most of the known dead and the more than 125 injured were trapped in a box-like canyon. The wind shifted and sent the flames toward them. Some of horror followed as they struggled to escape. More than 1,000 acres of park land were burned over.

Fire and police officials at first attributed the fire to a carelessly discarded cigarette or match. Later, Hollywood detectives arrested Robert D. Barr, 29, for questioning after he had been found, they said, near the scene of some small new blazes started early Wednesday.

The officers said Barr admitted he started a fire in Griffith Park at 10 o'clock at night, but denied having been responsible for the main fire, which began burning nearly eight hours earlier.

While the mayor and district attorney started official investigations, Coroner Frank Nance announced that an inquest will be held.

Ordered To Kill Looters

Steps Taken To Preserve Order At Havana

Havana.—Four persons met death as looting broke out along the waterfront section of downtown Havana during the height of the second phase of a tropical storm which lashed over the city.

There was wild firing when patrolling soldiers sought to disperse the looting mob. A soldier was fatally wounded, a sailor was killed and two negroes were shot to death.

Throughout the city the assembling of groups was forbidden. Army headquarters announced all available soldiers were being posted in the centre of the city under strict orders to kill looters and suspicious looking persons.

Along the waterfront drive the water was three feet deep with seas running high and waves dashing over the sea walls.

Since the storm was moving slowly, the national observatory predicted gales would again sweep Havana. Seien observatory reported a maximum wind velocity of 82 miles p. h.

Farmed In Peace River

Former Westerner May Be Scottish National Labor Candidate

Kilmarnock, Scotland.—Kenneth Lindsay, who farmed in the Peace River district of Alberta 10 years ago while studying for his degree, may be the National Labor candidate in the Kilmarnock by-election. Lindsay has also lectured in Canada and he was the first Labor president of the Oxford union.

His election is due to the appointment of Craigie Aitchison as lord justice-clerk. The only National Laborite elected in Scotland in the last general elections. He had a majority of 7,036 in a straight fight with Labor.

British War Debts

Reported That U.S. Government Plans To Make Reductions

New York.—The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce says it is indicated that the United States government will embark upon a new monetary policy that will enable foreign debtor governments to conduct appropriate negotiations looking to settlement of their obligations.

"That is a far more manifest, the correspondent reports, that a substantial scaling down of the British debt must be effected. The chief domestic problem being as to how this may be accomplished without bringing about adverse repercussions to the Roosevelt administration."

Keeping Within Estimate

Toronto, Ont.—Hon. E. A. Dunlop, Ontario provincial treasurer, has announced the government's plan to cut down controllable ordinary expenditures by $4,000,000 had been carried to a successful conclusion and the ordinary expenditure for 1933 would be well within the estimate of $34,800,000.

LOCAL ITEMS

A bread war was on between two of our leading stores last Saturday. One was selling 5 loaves for 19c, while the other hiked them one and made it 6 for 19c. Seems as though no poor sufferer should go hungry when bread is so cheap.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLean and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Baker, of Fort Saskatchewan, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lane. Mr. McLean is the warden of the jail there. Mrs. Baker sang a splendid solo at the United Church service Sunday night.

Mrs. W. Carsell and family spent Thanksgiving in Chateau. Did you notice the demonstration of the Wainwright Flour Mill in the window of the Rudd & Patterson, last Saturday, in presenting their new breakfast cereal known as "The Sunny Maid." Look for the adv. in this issue.

EDGERTON RIPPLES

October has brought to us some very favorable weather and once more, threshing is in full swing. A few more days will spell fine for this year.

Our town has enjoyed the visit of an airplane during the last week. Stunt flying, including parachute jumping, has created a great deal of amusement for our citizens. A cent per pound provided many with the opportunity of having their first ride in the air.

The local Badminton club has been reorganized for the coming season at a well attended meeting last Friday. Officers elected were: Pres. Mr. P. Mibbe, Vice-Pres. Mr. Poaps; Sec-Treas. Mr. A. Kieck. Fees for three months pay two dollars per person. Pay your fees and let's go for another season.

Rev. and Mrs. Bainbridge journeyed to Wainwright last Friday and were guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Armstrong.

Mrs. Chaplin entertained at her home last Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Anderson, a new comer to our town.

Rev. G. W. Wilson exchanged duties with Rev. Bateman, of Wainwright, on Sunday.

Rally Day services will be held in the Edgerton Hall on Sunday next at 2:30 p.m. Program will be provided by the Rosebuds, Bloomington, McCafferty, Rosemayne and Edgerton Sunday School pupils. You are cordially invited.

Messrs. K. and P. Challenger are Edmonton visitors over the weekend. Miss Helen Gully is in Edmonton spending Thanksgiving with her parents.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES HELD IN LOCAL CHURCHES

So far as we have been able to learn all the churches observed Thanksgiving with a special service on Sunday. The churches were decorated with fruit, vegetables and grain as well as some beautiful flowers. Special singing was presented and at the United Church the choir gave two anthems and a solo.

LOCAL ITEMS

Miss Madeline Hodgins, a relative of Rev. Armstrong, spent the week end in the Armstrong home, returning to her home in Edmonton on Monday.

We understand that the high school track meet will be held at Vermilion on Friday of this week.

The Teachers' Convention of the Wainwright Inspectorate will meet in Wainwright for a two day convention on the 26 and 27 of October.

George Glass, returned from the East on Thursday of last week. George was the delegate from this territory to the Railway Men's Convention held in Ottawa to discuss the proposed strike. He says no information is for publicity at this time.

Miss Breker, Mrs. T. E. Armstrong, for several weeks, left for Wetaskiwin last week.

We understand that the local A.F. & A.M. members are equipping their hall for bowling and other indoor sports. Anyone interested may see the Sec. Gordon Graham, as you do not need to be a Mason to take part.

The Alberta Pool Elevator report that on Thursday of last week they took in over 8000 bushels of wheat. Miss Mildred Perkins is home for a visit from Lloydminster hospital where she is taking training.

D. W. Beauchamp, M.P., who has been in Wainwright for some weeks superintending the drilling on the two wells that he is interested in, left last Thursday for Winnipeg via Edmonton. One of the wells is now producing and is on a paying basis we understand.

Rev. T. Edgar Armstrong reports the marriage on Saturday, October 7th, 1934, at the United Church parsonage, in Wainwright, of Andrew Clifton Lockhart, of Jarow, and Mrs. Katherine Speiser, of Wainwright, Saskatchewan. They will make their home on the groom's farm at Jarow.

Grace Bear is spending the week at her home near Tolland.

The Rhythm Kings played for a dance in Jarow Friday last and report a very successful evening. A number of the young people from town accompanied them.

H. T. Schlitt and family were visiting Mrs. Schlitt's family at Bawlv over the weekend.

Mrs. J. Tansley spent Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. F. Hyland, of Edmonton.

Mr. Williams, Chief Land Inspector of C.P.R. Lands, was in town last week conferring with their local agents, Wainwright Realty Co.

Wedding bells are ringing vigorously these days. In fact we heard of several old batches that are hearing things.

Mr. Cook, the man who dresses fowls, report that he has a number of jobs but has time to do more.

James Singleton, of the Associated Refineries, is moving with his family to Killam. He leaves on Thursday of this week.

A REMINDER

A few years ago thousands of Alberta farmers petitioned and worked for the building of Alberta Pool Elevators. As a result the Pool system covers the Province in a close network.

The same reasons which inspired grain growers to ask for the service and protection of this co-operative system of elevators suggest that patronage should continue to be extended to them on a generous scale.
